

Readings for Fourth Sunday of Advent 22 December 2024

Entrance Antiphon, Is 45: 8 – Drop down dew from above, you heavens and let the clouds rain down the Just One: let the earth be opened and bring forth a Saviour

First reading Micah 5:2-5a

Thus says the LORD: You, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labour has given birth; then the rest of his brothers shall return to the people of Israel. And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth. And he shall be their peace.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 80(79):2ac, 3b, 15-16. 18-19. Bring us back, O God; let your face shine forth, and we shall be saved.

Second reading Hebrews 10:5-10

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came into the world, he said, ‘Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body have you prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, ‘Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.’ When he said above, ‘You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings’ (these are offered according to the Law), then he added, ‘Behold, I have come to do your will’. He does away with the first in order to establish the second. And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Gospel Acclamation Luke 1:38

Alleluia, alleluia. Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word. Alleluia.

Gospel Luke 1:39-45

In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town in Judah, and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and she exclaimed with a loud cry, ‘Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And why is this granted to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfilment of what was spoken to her from the Lord.’

Communion Antiphon – Is 7: 14 Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son; and his name will be called Emmanuel.

Sunday 29 December 2024 The Holy Family

Entrance Antiphon Lk 2: 16 The shepherds went in haste, and found Mary and Joseph and the Infant lying in a manger.

First reading 1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28

‘Samuel, as long as he lives, is lent to the Lord.’ In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Samuel, for she said, ‘I have asked for him from the LORD.’ The man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and to pay his vow. But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, ‘As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, so that he may appear in the presence of the LORD and dwell there for ever.’ And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and she brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh. And the child was young. Then they slaughtered the bull, and they brought the child to Eli. And she said, ‘Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence, praying to the LORD. For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition that I made to him. Therefore I have lent him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD.’ And he worshipped the LORD there.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 84(83):2-3. 5-6. 9-10. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord.

Second reading 1 John 3:1-2, 21-24

‘We are called children of God; and so we are.’ Beloved: See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall see him as he is. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

Gospel Acclamation Cf. Acts 16:14b Alleluia, alleluia. Open our hearts, O Lord, that we may pay attention to the words of your Son. Alleluia.

Gospel Luke 2:41-52

Jesus is found by his parents sitting among the teachers. The parents of Jesus went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom. And when the feast was ended, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it, but supposing him to be in the group they went a day’s journey, but then they began to search for him among their relatives and acquaintances, and when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for him. After three days they found him in the Temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. And when his parents saw him, they were astonished. And his mother said to him, ‘Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been searching for you in great distress.’ And he said to them, ‘Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?’ And they did not understand the saying that he spoke to them. And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was submissive to them. And his mother treasured up all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favour with God and man.

CHRISTMAS FUN RUN Friday 27th December in Bollington Join CAFOD for the annual Christmas Fun Run in Bollington! Wear your festive fancy dress and take on this joyful run to support communities around the world to lift themselves out of poverty. This is a great opportunity to enjoy the great outdoors over the Christmas period, whilst also contributing to a good cause. Adult, child and family entrance fees are available. Whether you walk, run or jog, every step makes a difference. We also need volunteers to help on the day. please contact events@cafod.org.uk or kkeenan@cafod.org.uk for more information.

Carol Service Many thanks to all who attended and helped at the evening carol service, especially Noel and the group who provided the wonderful music. £663.50 was raised for Our Lady's parish.

Our Lady's School News: All the children have been having lots of fun at their Christmas parties this week. Term ended with a whole school visit to The Light Cinema, which was enjoyed by all - Merry Christmas everyone! School re-opens on Monday 6th January. We are having another Open Morning on Wednesday 8th January between 9:30am and 12:00pm. Any parents whose child is due to start school next September are warmly invited to visit our amazing school. Did you know? We now offer Wraparound Care from 8:00am-6:00pm. Please contact the School Office for further information.

A Christmas Message from Father Martin

Dear Parishioners and visitors to our Parish,

Christ is born! Rejoice!

During this joyful season of Christmas, we celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that in celebrating his birth you will be surrounded by peace, joy, and comfort. The Christmas message tells all of us that we are not alone; God sent his Son to save us and to be with us always. Remember that Christ shares our joys and sorrows and carries us when we fall.

At the just concluded Congress in Rome, organised by the Dicastery for Culture and Education, Pope Francis admonished us to let the light of Christ radiate through us, without drawing attention to ourselves. It was a privilege to be part of the Congress and to receive special blessings from Pope Francis on your behalf. I hope that, along with this blessing from the Holy Father, this Christmas message brings Christmas blessings to you and to your families.

Thank you to all our staff and volunteers and those who help to keep our church beautiful throughout the year; I am very grateful for your help. Also, a big thank you to all who have helped to make our Advent and Christmas Season at all three parishes a joyous and uplifting experience for all. Thank you for the Carol services, the Christingle service, the beautiful cribs, decorations, trees and flowers in our three churches.

As I leave for Nigeria after Christmas I ask for your prayers for a safe journey. You will be in my prayers too. I am grateful to all those who have donated towards the Free Medical Outreach in my village on 11th January.

A very happy Christmas to you all and God Bless,

Fr. Martin

ST VINCENT'S NEWS

THANK YOU TO all our volunteers who made all the services in the run up to Christmas so special.

MANY THANKS to all who took part in the Christingle and Crib events during the week. A special thank you to the children who attended and read to us so beautifully, £68 was sent to the Children's Society for the Christingle and a good number of children and families came to see our crib displays.

THANKS TO all the cleaning group who have tried to give the church a deeper clean before Christmas.

Readers for the Children's Vigil Mass would be good if they want to volunteer this weekend
